

This woman says that after months of suffering Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made her as well as ever.

Maude E. Forgie, of Leesburg, Va., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For months I suffered from female ills so that I thought I could not live. I wrote you, and after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and using the treatment you prescribed I felt like a new woman. I am now strong, and well as ever, and thank you for the good you have done me."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

LITTLE VISITS

May 1.

Oh, see the gay parade, The moving day parade! Behold, the loaded vans, the kettles, pots and pans! Within the vans is home while sad the homeless roam. Upon the rear is tied the folding bed so wide. Upon the top, like pegs, the table rears its legs!

All hail the first of May, The people's moving day! Oh, see the gay parade, The moving day parade. Upon the walk is piled by butchers rough and wild, the furniture we know. Oh, what a rusty show! Just look at father's! See! See! See! The parrot, too, is sad, although he looks quite mad.

Oh, charming first of May, The people's moving day! Oh, see the gay parade, The moving day parade. The van is on its way. Now father, like a dray, tugs valiantly beside he dares not trust to ride. Ma follows with the cat, the dog and things like that, and next the "kiddies" hike—all homeless on the pike!

Oh, weary first of May, The people's moving day! Oh, see the gay parade, The moving day parade. To-night they're eating soups at some cheap boarding house, and then they work and tug to lay the parlor rug. By midnight pa is cross when mother tries to boss. At last she lumps her fears and ends it all in tears!

Oh, jarring first of May, The people's moving day! Oh, see the gay parade, The moving day parade. Next day, oh, such a view: "Behold this awful view! The flat is not at all what I had thought. The hall is dark as it can be! One simply cannot see a blessed thing to cheer from any window here!"

Oh, fearful first of May, The people's moving day! Hair in His Eyes. A few nights ago, members of The Press Club of Chicago gave an entertainment at Glen Ellyn, a Chicago suburb. The toastmaster, in introducing one of the best known of the Chicago literary colony, begged the indulgence of the audience for the reason that the gentleman who was about to address them, had a nervous habit, while reciting, of shaking his hair into his eyes and fumbling around until he could remove it. He earnestly requested the ladies and gentlemen present not to be facetious if this unpleasantness should occur.

When the speaker came onto the platform, there was a burst of laughter. He was as bald on top as a doorknob!

Mind Meanderings. Dropping a lemon pie on the floor, face down, is one way to hand your guests a lemon.

Living in the city has its drawbacks when all the folks "back yonder" use your little flat as a hotel, while in to see the sights.

Nowadays a man is kept so busy trying to head off some fellow who is after his job that he hasn't time to develop conceit.

Nothing is quite as funny and incongruous on a farm as a son who has been away to college and comes back to spend the summer at home. His pancake cap, his turned-up trousers cut on an exaggerated pattern, his flowing necktie, his football hair, his dinky little coat—in fact, almost his entire dress, seem sadly out of harmony with pa's blue denim and ma's calico runabout. The cows stare at the boy, the pigs grunt their disapproval and the hired man grins. It is then that the staid old father and mother have grave and solemn conversation regarding that boy and the effect of college life upon him. But, of course, the college won't hurt him if he has the right stuff in him. He will outgrow his eccentricities in dress!

PAT'S MIND WAS LOGICAL.

Quick to See One Strong Point as to Victim's Identity.

Previously to entering the railroad yards an able-bodied loafer picked up a small, glittering object from the sidewalk and, without examining it very closely, pinned it to his coat, says the Philadelphia Ledger. Three minutes later he collided with a slowly moving freight train, was hurled against a post and picked up insensibly. The train dispatcher, notified by telephone, called up Patrick Doyle, the yardmaster's assistant, and said: "You'd better search his pockets, Doyle. Find out who he is, notify his friends and report to me."

A few moments later the report came: "There's not a line of writing on him," said Patrick, "but we've identified him by the badge on his coat. He is a Lady Maccabee."

How I Cured Sweeney and Fistula.

"I want to tell you how I saved one of our horses that had a fistula. We had the horse doctor out and he said it was so bad that he did not think he could cure it, and did not come again. Then we tried Sloan's Liniment and it cured it up nicely."

"One day last spring I was plowing for a neighbor who had a horse with sweeney, and I told him about Sloan's Liniment and he had me get a bottle for him, and it cured his horse all right, and he goes off now like a colt."

"We had a horse that had sweeney awfully bad and we thought it was never going to be any good, but we used Sloan's Liniment and it cured it up nicely. I told another neighbor about it and he said it was the best Liniment he ever used."

"We are using Sloan's Sure Colic Cure and we think it is all right."

THE GREAT MAN'S OCCUPATION.

Nothing Very Serious in His Mind Just at That Moment.

The multi-millionaire was being shaved. As he lay back in his chair, looking upward, his grave face gave the impression that he was in deep study.

"Ah," whispered one of the barber shop loiterers, "I'll wager a dollar against a toothpick that he is thinking of railroad mergers."

"No," said another, "he is thinking about bear raids in Wall street."

"Bet he is pondering over the rebate system," echoed a third.

"I'll ask him."

Walking over to the chair, he said politely: "Beg your pardon, sir, but to settle an argument, would you kindly tell us what mighty question you are studying over?"

Perversion of Type.

The Sunday school teacher was entertaining her class with what she had fondly planned to be a "social evening." To her disappointment she found that all spontaneity had been left at home with the boys' everyday clothes, and conversation dragged hopelessly until her bull terrier came into the room. He sniffed about from one shy hand of welcome to another, when suddenly a boyish voice, gruff with embarrassment, burst forth: "I had a bull pup like that once, but he grew up into a bloodhound."

BUILT RIGHT.

Brain and Nerves Restored by Grape-Nuts Food.

The number of persons whose ailments were such that no other food could be retained at all, is large and reports are on the increase.

"For 12 years I suffered from dyspepsia, finding no food that did not distress me," writes a Wis. lady. "I was reduced from 145 to 90 lbs., gradually growing weaker until I could leave my bed only a short while at a time, and became unable to speak aloud."

"Three years ago I was attracted by an article on Grape-Nuts and decided to try it."

"My stomach was so weak I could not take cream, but I used Grape-Nuts with milk and lime water. It helped me from the first, building up my system in a manner most astonishing to the friends who had thought my recovery impossible."

"Soon I was able to take Grape-Nuts and cream for breakfast, and lunch at night, with an egg and Grape-Nuts for dinner."

"I am now able to eat fruit, meat and nearly all vegetables for dinner, but fondly continue Grape-Nuts for breakfast and supper."

"At the time of beginning Grape-Nuts I could scarcely speak a sentence without changing words around or 'talking crooked' in some way, but my brain and nerves have become so strengthened that I no longer have that trouble." "There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

WOMEN'S KIDNEYS.

Are the Source of Most of Women's Sicknesses.

Mrs. Rebecca Mock, 1795 E. Rich Street, Columbus, Ohio, writes: "I believe I would still be a victim of kidney troubles but for Doan's Kidney Pills, for when I started using them I was in constant pain with my back, and no other remedy had been of any use. The kidney secretions were irregular, and I was nervous and lacked energy. But Doan's Kidney Pills gave me prompt relief and continued use cured me."

Accounted For.

Naturally she turned to her husband for information.

"Why are so many of the police mentioned as plain-clothes men?" she asked.

"I suppose," he answered, "that they're like the rest of us. It takes all their pay to keep their wives from being plain-clothes women."—Philadelphia Ledger.

HOW TO TEST LINSEED OIL.

There is nothing that will make paint go wrong on the house more quickly than poor oil. It is as bad in its way as adulterations in the white lead. Petroleum oil cheapeners may be detected by placing a drop of the oil on a black painted surface. If one sees the characteristic iridescence or play of colors which kerosene exhibits, it is evidence of adulteration. Corn and fish oil can be detected by the smell.

Adulteration in white lead can best be discovered by the use of a blow-pipe, which National Lead Company will send with instructions free to anyone interested in paint. Address, National Lead Company, Woodbridge Building, New York.

Money to Burn.

The big touring car had just whizzed by with a roar like a gigantic rocket, and Pat and Mike turned to watch it disappear in a cloud of dust.

"Them chug wagons must cost a hape aw cash," said Mike. "The rich is fairly burnin' money."

"An', be the smell aw it," sniffed Pat, "it must be that tainted money we do be hearin' so much about."

BABY'S ITCHING HUMOR.

Nothing Would Help Him—Mother At Most in Despair—Owes Quick Cure to Cuticura.

"Several months ago, my little boy began to break out with itching sores. I doctored him, but as soon as I got them healed up in one place they would break out in another. I was almost in despair. I could not get anything that would help him. Then I began to use Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and after using them three times, the sores commenced to heal. He is now well, and not a scar is left on his body. They have never returned nor left him with bad blood, as one would think. Cuticura Remedies are the best I have ever tried, and I shall highly recommend them to any one who is suffering likewise. Mrs. William Geeding, 102 Washington St., Attica, Ind., July 22, 1907."

New Dinner Card Idea.

From Paris comes a decorated card-rack with a trail of artificial flowers that may be changed to suit the dinner colors and makes a pretty addition to the table. These racks are to hold a plain card upon which the guest's name is written and they may be used for a good many dinners, thus obviating the expense of the decorated dinner card every time one entertains.

Pants for the Orphan.

There is a praiseworthy custom in some families of sending all the "pants" that the boys have gone through, wholly or in part, to the asylum for orphans, and, as the orphans never mind a hole more or less, they are glad to get the garments. In one of these families a few days ago occurred a little incident bearing on this laudable custom. Fred was engaged in that extremely fascinating, but rather dangerous, sport of sliding down the banisters.

"What are you doing there, Fred?" asked mamma.

"Making pants for the poor little orphans," answered Fred.
